Veterans Day of Gratitude at Lodge No. 3

Edward Cooke, 11/11/11 Event Chair

This year Veterans day at Lodge No. 3 was a great success, especially in that it gave us a special opportunity on 11/11/11 to thank those who served in the US armed forces on a day of remembrance.

The day started with the presentation of colors by Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Sea Scouts; Pastor Roger of SF Impact honored lodge with an invocation and blessings; ER Burns lead lodge in moment of silence at 11:11am, then read a number of proclamations and certificates of honor, from local, state and national representatives.

An excellent buffet lunch was then offered by Rick's Catering for only, $11.11. The Lodge sponsored lunch for over 25 local veterans. Later in the afternoon Elk members and other local veterans who were in the special Friday parade arrived at the Lodge, along with a visit from the Honorable Senator Leland Yee.

Senator Yee presented the Lodge with his proclamation that thanked Lodge No. 3's members for their dedication to help and remember all service personnel. Senator Yee then took some time visiting with service members, Lodge members, and their families.

The evening session started with a heart felt statement of gratitude by Elaine Chea of SF Impact, and a presentation by a Certificate of Honor from Mayor Ed Lee's official representative Joaquin Torres.

Joaquin Torres of the Mayor's Office, presents the Certificate of Honor to Jonathan Burns, ER

With a full house of diners, guests spilled over into the main hall to enjoy Rick's $20.11 Prix Fixe three course dinner special; punctuated with a slice of good ol' American apple pie for dessert.

Our 50/50 drawing took in over $900 for Lodge No. 3 veteran's programs, and with kind giveback donations from the cash winners in attendance, we reached our $1000 donation goal for the local USO station. Also, thanks to the kind donations from local community sponsors, over 15 visiting veterans were selected to receive a gratitude door prize.

Exalted Ruler's Column

If you noticed something different about me lately, chances are it's the moustache I've been growing in over the past month. As I've explained to the curious, I've pledged to cultivate a moustache for the month of November, to raise both awareness and funds for men's health, specifically cancers affecting men. I thank Lodge Esquire Ryan White for captaining a local "Movember" team, and inviting me to join his merry mustachioed band.

My father was 57 years old when he succumbed to cancer. He ignored symptoms for two weeks, and stopped eating even before he finally decided to visit a doctor. He passed away 7 months after his symptoms started. There's no certainty as to whether he would have survived with earlier detection, but the lingering impression on me has been that men will wait too long once they know something's wrong (and I'm just as guilty of this myself). So while it has been an adjustment for me to allow the facial hair to grow, one not very well received by my new bride (sorry, Sanae),

I feel that those I tell my story to may find themselves one day faced with a similar health decision that my father did, and I pray that I may influence a crucial effort and potentially save a life. Having a fuzzy face for one month surely is worth that.

If you would like to learn more about the Movember movement, or make a donation to their programs, please visit our team's site at https://www.movember.com/us/register/details/team_id/256928.

As members of a community organization, you are perhaps accustomed to seasonal requests for donations, and as an active member and officer, I am dedicated to ensuring you know what you can do to help our community and our lodge during the holidays. This is a very busy and energetic time for us, and our calendar is quite full. I hope that you can participate in our merry activities, such as the First Lady's Tree-Trimming party on Friday, December 2, and the San Francisco Lodge's annual New Year's Eve party. And I ask for you to please lend a hand to our charities and fundraisers, by supporting a needy San Francisco family with a toy and gift card, or by contributing to the Employees' Christmas Fund. Please look for information we recent sent out by mail, and also in our emails and bulletins, or posted around the Lodge. Or call our Secretary's office.

My family wishes yours a safe, healthy, and happy holiday season. Merry Christmas to all! —Jonathan

From the Gym Corner

Fire at 450 Post – Sign in Sheet Proves its Value

by Steve Micros

As most of you are aware, construction commenced at 450 Post Street to address leaks entering from the street level into the sub-basement. On Wednesday, November 9, during the installation of a new sidewalk membrane, smoke began entering the gym. The gym attendants determined that the smoke accumulation was serious enough to call the San Francisco Fire Department. The fire alarm was automatically activated and it soon became apparent that there was an actual fire at the point of construction.

Following the procedures conducted during the annual fire drills at the Elks Lodge, the gym attendants and members sprang into action. There were several members working out in the gym when it was determined that an evacuation of the premise would be necessary. The attendants followed the required procedures and using the sign in sheet, were able to account for how many members and guests were present in the gym! Ben conducted a final walk through of the gym and then met the members at the designated evacuation location at the southwest corner of Post & Mason. With the sign in sheet in hand we were able to determine that all gym members were accounted for.

The SFFD determined the location of the fire at the street level and extinguished it before it caused major damage to the building. Unfortunately, the smoke did leave a lingering stench and some residue throughout the Elks lodge and hotel.

The gym attendants are ultimately responsible for the safety of the Elks members and guests in the gym. Their efforts in enforcing the sign in/out process serves many purposes – which is evident in the event of an actual emergency. The City-mandated fire drills are not to be taken lightly and we would like to thank the Elks gym members for their participation in these fire drills. Please remember that the Elks Lodge takes the fire drills and all procedures surrounding the process very seriously.

Please be sure to thank the gym attendants for their extra effort in cleaning up after the fire. By wiping down all surfaces and coordinating with Coit Cleaners, who came in to install large fans to clear the air, the gym was up and running — business as usual. Please respect the attendants' requests to sign in and out as it is for your own safety!

Fall Blood Drive 2011

Brian Criss, Chair

On Monday November 7th, the Elk's had their Annual Fall Blood Drive. 137 people attended, filled out their paperwork, and waited for their turn with the nurse. Not all were accepted. They are the "Attempted Donors". Of those who did donate, there were 77 regular pints of whole blood collected. In addition, there were 31 Alyx donations, during which they collect twice as many red blood cells. Those count as a double donation, or, 62 pints. That's a total of 139 pints of blood donated, an all time record for San Francisco Elks Lodge No. 3. This amazing result wouldn't be possible if it weren't for the hard working volunteers, With apologies for anyone this editor has missed, the Blood Drive Committee and the Lodge, would like to thank and acknowledge the following volunteers: Co-Chairman Steven Micros for being everywhere and doing everything, Prize Chair: Deanna Micros for collecting over 30 prize donations, Richard Breitbarth for the excellent lighting setup, Roger Ludwig for room set up, Ron Brown and Bob Claesgens for traffic control, Dick Cross & Jill Lounsberry for bring 10-donors, Joy DiFranza and Kristine Hachadourian for their social media prowess, Doug Leurey and Tim O'Brien for food service, Mike Duffy and Rick Babich for food procurement and prep, Rich Englehart, Dianne Huddleston, Tim Shea, Tony Villa, Steve Micros, Bob Claesgens and Chairman Criss for donor recruitment, Mike Willoughby and Bruno Pardini for all of their time consulting and advising the Blood Drive Committee, Jen Smith, Sue DeMartini, Jeanne Beaudet and Dianne Huddleston for Canteen prep including collecting all of the donated baked goodies created by Deanna Micros, Vicki Criss, Jen Smith, and Maureen Schroeder (I tried them all, and they were excellent), And finally, finishing the day in grand style with broom in hand, Co-Chairman Steve Micros, and Dana Williams, who lead the clean up. The Lodge would also like to thank the following donors: Kimberly Aker, Michael Alderete, Steven Ames, William Antraccoli, Robert Arge, James Attridge, Peter Bailey, Blake Barrington, Rodney Bastian, Jim Battles, Gregory Bayol, Anis Benamara, Biki Berry, Christopher Boehm, Kimberly Boulos, Richard Breitbarth, Jay Broadwell, Ronald Brown, Kenneth Burke, Jonathan Burns, Paul Byrne, Gerry Calgaro, Leslie Cape, Rowena Cape, John Chirco, Edward Cooke, Robert Corridan, Kenneth Cottura, Cliff Courier, Richard Cross, Richard Dagostino, Ivan Dana, Andre Davis, Michael Day, Susan Demartini, Joshua DeweErd, Noorhani Dickson,

The Elks Blood Drive Raffle Give to Get or Win-Win!

Deanna Micros, Prize Chair

When you give your blood you get the satisfaction of knowing that you have helped someone in need.

The blood donors that participate in this life-saving event at the SF Elks, semi-annual, blood drive are all winners! Of course, there are also winners of another sort ... those who are lucky enough to win one of the amazing raffle prizes and those who were kind and generous enough to contribute the prizes!

At the end of the day, the units of blood are tallied and the raffle begins. It is at this time that we acknowledge those individuals, be it long-time, dedicated blood donors, or those who willingly rolled up their sleeves for the first time. The awesome raffle prizes are an extra draw, pun intended, for our blood donors.

Beginning with the June 2011 blood drive, an e-mail blast was sent to Elks members asking if they would provide items to be included in the raffle. The response was very positive. Several Elks members now generously donate items from their place of business, through their employer, or even their own handcrafted items. Additionally, Elks have reached out to their friends in the local business community to ask for their support.

Thanks to this extra enthusiasm the prizes have become more coveted! Just ask anyone who has been fortunate enough to win a $100 visa gift card, dinner for two at Jeanne D'Arc, tickets to Disneyland, lunch at Swan Oyster Depot or an afternoon at Decks -- of course this is just a small sampling!!

The Elks Blood Drive Committee would like to extend its sincere gratitude to the many Elks members, individuals, and local business owners who have consistently offered generous gift certificates, merchandise, sporting/event tickets, and services to be included in the raffle. Suffice to say, several of these individuals are also consistent blood donors.

Under the leadership of the Committee Chairman, Brian Criss, his dedicated Co-Chairman, Steven Micros and the on-going support of the committee members, volunteers, and donors, the Elks' semi-annual blood drive is building the momentum to be the largest blood drive in SF!

Remember, Elks Care, Elks Share – Please show your appreciation by supporting these local businesses and thanking the individuals who have been so generous and kind -- it is a true Win Win!
